

I am very concerned that public airwaves will contain fewer and fewer voices and views. We already have too few outlets to receive good quality local and international news and information. Radio stations sound alike across the country. More and more cities and towns have only one major newspaper. Please reconsider relaxing the ownership limits. The limits are too lax already.